IN THE MATTER OF THE APPLICATION OF VIVO COMMUNICATIONS-AZ, LLC FOR A CERTIFICATE OF CONVENIENCE AND NECESSITY TO PROVIDE COMPETITIVE
FACILITIES-BASED AND RESOLD LOCAL EXCHANGE, INTEREXCHANGE, AND ACCESS
TELECOMMUNICATIONS SERVICES.

DOCKET NO. T-03973A-00-1038

PROCEDURAL ORDER*BY THE COMMISSION:

On August 6, 2001, the Arizona Corporation Commission ("Commission") issued Decision No. 63928 which granted Vivo Communications-AZ, LLC ("Vivo") a Certificate of Convenience and Necessity ("CC&N") to provide competitive facilities-based and resold local exchange, interexchange, and exchange access telecommunications services in Arizona.

Pursuant to Decision No. 63923, Vivo's CC&N was contingent on, among other things, Vivo certifying that all issues associated with the provision of 911 service have been resolved with the emergency service providers and Vivo filing its plan to have its customers' telephone numbers include in the incumbent provider's Directories and Directory Assistance databases within 30 days of the Decision.

On September 21, 2001, Vivo filed a request for an extension of time for complying with both of these conditions until 30 days prior to providing service in Arizona.

On October 19, 2001, Staff filed a recommendation that Vivo's extension of time should be granted, subject to compliance with both conditions by the earlier of January 31, 2002 or 30 days prior to the provision of local exchange service.

Although Vivo has not yet filed the required 911 and Directory Assistance information, Vivo will be given until the earlier of August 6, 2002 or 30 days prior to commencement of service to comply with these conditions.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED that Vivo Communications-AZ, LLC shall file its certification of 911 service and its plan to have customers' phone numbers included in the incumbent provider's Directories and Directory Assistance databases by no later than August 6, 2002 or 30 days prior to providing service in Arizona, whichever comes first. No additional extensions will be granted and failure to comply with the above-stated conditions will result in voidance of Vivo's CC&N without further order of the Commission. In the event that Vivo fails to comply with all conditions, thereby resulting in voidance of its CC&N, a new application for CC&N authority must be filed by the Applicant and approved by the Commission prior to commencement of service.

DATED this 22nd day of February, 2002.
